A few price changes seen on seed, grain market

Wait-and-see mood prevails on cotton market

RECORDED REPORT KARACHI: A few changes were seen on the wholesale grain and seed market on Monday as balanced demand and supply did not allow many items to move any side in process of trading, dealers said.

RECORDED REPORT KARACHI: Wait-and-see mood prevailed on the cotton market on Monday as higher prices discouraged the buyers to make fresh deals in the NY cotton market track.

Some cotton analysts said that the prices may not come down due to short crop, instead, they said that the prices are likely to increase in the coming days.

One thing was surprising to note that the importers were conspicuous by their absence despite the lucrative rate of dollars these days, they noted.
