

Hussain Haroon ready to become caretaker Prime Minister

KARACHI (January 07, 2013) : Pakistan's ambassador to the United Nations Abdullah Hussain Haroon said he will accept the responsibility if offered to take charge as the caretaker prime minister. Talking to media persons here on Sunday, Haroon said the no one knows what will happen on January 14, the day when the Tehrik-e-Minhajul Quran (TMJ) chief Dr Tahirul Qadri will lead a million-march to Islamabad. Therefore, he said, the government should announce the election schedule without any delay. Copyright Independent News Pakistan, 2013
